

Biography

This motivational speaker, radio talk show host, preacher, teacher, and husband can be described as a beloved bold, radical, servant of God with the reputation of “keeping it real” and “telling it like it is”. His uncompromising methods of preaching and teaching the word of God with simplicity, has inspired many to be convinced, convicted, and converted, as well as empowered while in the Body of Christ.

As pastor and founder of From The Word International Fellowship Ministries, Inc. located in Laurinburg, NC, T.D. Williams has accepted the spiritual assignment of tearing down the traditional strongholds which have plagued God’s people for generations.

With several honors and degrees to his credit, T.D. Williams not only comes with academic credentials in Business Management, Computer Technology, Practical Theology, and Biblical Studies, he also comes with heavenly credentials, and uses life experiences to now bishop several churches throughout the country.

Bishop Williams was awarded the “2005 Spirit of Excellence Award” by Next Generations Ministries for his ability to defy church traditions, and eradicate segregation based on race, creed, or gender within the Body of Christ. Conference hosts stated that, “Bishop Williams’ holistic approach to ministry has placed his congregation on the cutting edge of the new millennium church.” Previously, T.D. has facilitated the Library of Congress’ annual summit on the “State of the African American Male”, and conducted the Department of Interior’s first ever “Noon Day Revival” for its employees. Bishop T. D. is also a member of The North Carolina Gospel Announcers Guild Board of Directors.

Terence D. Williams is the steward and husband of Tracey Michelle and father to three beautiful daughters Kinesia Michelle (15), Jatoya Michelle (10), and Takiya Michelle (6).

He is truly a man after God’s own heart and his love for God has caused him to be firm in his convictions to stay in the word, live out the word, and in all that he does, come From The Word!

www.fromtheword.org

Email: trewill7@bellsouth.net